

Previous parts

<https://www.landsoflords.com/arm/org/65315/1024428>

<https://www.landsoflords.com/arm/org/65315/1024897>

<https://www.landsoflords.com/arm/org/65315/1025610>

<https://www.landsoflords.com/arm/org/65315/1026817>

<https://www.landsoflords.com/arm/org/65315/1027196>

<https://www.landsoflords.com/arm/org/74028/1190817>

<https://www.landsoflords.com/arm/org/78768/1217099>

A break in a journey chapter 2 part 7

Lewe op Pad domains on Terra Borealis part 3

<https://www.landsoflords.com/arm/org/74261>

Village of Crab Claw

Village was located in northern part of Terra Borealis on seashore

<https://www.landsoflords.com/map/00133E27181N>

The village had a wide variety of craftsmen: a brick maker, a copper and tin smelter, a bell foundry, a carpenter making furniture and coffins. It's pilgrim's house was adjacent Sacred Forest. In addition there were planted woods of alders, birches and willows to the south of the village. On the island of Crab Claw located to the south of the village, there is a cemetery and a place of worship for the sea god Gulp.

<https://www.landsoflords.com/arm/org/74261/1210646>

On north from village there was warcart race track,

<https://www.landsoflords.com/arm/org/74261/1223634>

Local population mostly consisted from Gulp and other sea gods believers, but there was also big population of worshipers of various forest connected spirits.

00016E:26703N

TERRA BOREALIS

